CHURCH OF CHRIST

We are a Bible centered, unified family of believers called to an ever-deepening relationship with Christ. We will pursue Christ through study, prayer, and fellowship. We recognize that we are sent to the larger community surrounding us to plant the seed of the Gospel and to demonstrate God's love and Christ's life.

Speaking the Truth In Love

How do we speak the truth in love? Here are five guidelines.

1. Listen before you speak. Make sure you understand the other person's perspective by asking good questions, taking time to hear their perspective. Ecclesiastes 3:7 teaches that there is a time to remain silent and a time to speak.
 2. Check yourself. Do you harbor hidden motivations? Are you dismissing your role in a perceived offense? Are you speaking in order to "set someone straight"? Ask God to reveal the meditations of your heart (Psalm 19:14).
 3. Watch your words. Keep it simple. Speak with kindness. You can't take back some things that you say. It's OK to be angry, but don't sin in your anger (Ephesians 4:26). Your words have the power to restore and creatively rebuild, but they also have the power to harm relationships in a lasting and damaging way (James 3:9-10). Don't be afraid to speak words of love throughout the exchange. Keep returning to the home base of love, the reason why you're needing to speak the truth.
 4. Pray before, after and during the conversation. Ask the Spirit to help you to have the right words to say and that your words will be saturated in love. Search the Spirit's counsel before your exchange and rely on the Spirit in your weakness (Romans 8:26-27).
 5. Trust in God. Speaking the truth in love will be difficult and may seem costly in the short run. It's like an investment; it pays more long-range dividends rather than short-term gains. God is able to use your words to create a better relationship, beyond what you imagine it can be (Ephesians 3:20-21).
- We must speak the truth in love, and we must always love when we are called to speak the truth. The good news is that Jesus said the truth – the gospel truth in all its power – will set us free (John 8:32). We must trust him enough to speak the truth in love.

Congregational Scripture Reading

1 John 3:1

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God!
And that is what we are!
